

Lead Us, Lord

Lead us, Lord, with tender mercy
As Your Truth lights our way
Help us know Your great compassion
As we journey through these days
Oh, Father, guide our steps, we pray

You are strength in our weakness
Our hope today and in times to come
Help us know Your love sustains us
When we're weary and battle worn
By Your grace, we will press on

Lord, we trust that our tomorrows
Rest securely in Your hands
Grant us faith that even sorrows
And the things we can't understand
Hold hidden treasures in Your plan

Help us love with grace and mercy
And Your Truth guiding our way
Let our lives tell redemption's story
As we journey through these days
May Christ be seen in us, we pray
May Christ be seen in us, we pray

\ arrangement by John Dill closes with a cappella chorus of He Leadeth Me (hymn#690); congregation &/or choir to join song leader:*

*He leadeth me, He leadeth me
By His own hand He leadeth me
His faithful follower I would be
For by His hand He leadeth me*
