

Equine ID protects your horse

A passport, microchip and up-to-date information on the Central Equine Database has many benefits for both you and your horse:

It helps quickly re-unite owners with a lost or straying horse

It prevents your horse from being slaughtered if they are signed out of the food chain

It prevents theft and illegal sales

It identifies horses in case of a disease outbreak

It gives a clearer picture of the horse population

