

INTERNATIONAL

Our practical international programmes improve horse welfare and support livelihoods in some of the world's poorest communities.

We currently work alongside horse owners in 17 countries on four continents, providing education, advice and training to help working horses for generations to come.

