

ROAD TRIP

Discover the charm of Woodstock

It's your perfect Road Trip destination

Escape the hustle and bustle of city life and explore the quaint and picturesque town of Woodstock. Nestled in the heart of McHenry County, Woodstock offers an enchanting blend of small-town charm, historic landmarks, and natural beauty, making it the perfect destination for a memorable road trip.

Start your day by exploring the historic Woodstock Square, a vibrant hub filled with charming boutiques, artisan shops and cozy cafes. Take a leisurely stroll around the Square and marvel at the beautifully preserved Victorian architecture that transports you back in time. Don't forget to snap some photos of the iconic gazebo, famously featured in the classic film "Groundhog Day."

For history enthusiasts, a visit to the Woodstock Opera House is a must. Built in 1889, this architectural gem hosts a variety of performances, including live theater, concerts, and comedy shows. Take a guided tour to learn about the Opera House's rich history and its role in shaping the cultural landscape of Woodstock.

Nature lovers will find solace in the serene surroundings of nearby parks, conservation areas and agricultural land, offering opportunities to stroll down a wooded path or pick your own berries.

No visit to Woodstock is complete without sampling the local cuisine.

Gather fresh ingredients from the renowned, producer-only farmers market or indulge in farm-to-table fare at one of the town's cozy eateries.

As the sun begins to set, reflect on the day's adventures while savoring a beverage at one of Woodstock's breweries or cocktail bars. Then prepare to cozy in for the night at the Cherry Tree Inn Bed & Breakfast, which also famously appeared in "Groundhog Day."

Plan your perfect trip to Woodstock and experience the magic of historical charm and vibrant culture yourself. Whether you're seeking relaxation, exploration, or simply a change of scenery, Woodstock welcomes you with open arms.

For more information, visit realwoodstock.com.

Nature lovers will find solace in the serene surroundings of nearby parks, conservation areas and agricultural land, offering opportunities to stroll down a wooded path or pick your own berries.

FUN FACT

In Illinois, Aurora is known as the "City of Lights" because it was the first U.S. city to use electric street lighting throughout the entire city. (Source: movoto.com)