

Data Analyst / System Analyst

Responsibilities

- Plan, design and lead the implementation of the overall data management and data-driven application system
- Support data warehouse design and implementation i.e. data dictionary, data cleaning, data download and data analysis
- Create Excel reports to track and identify trends in sales and revenue by using VBA, SQL and stored procedure
- Design, prepare and review reports on business performance analysis
- Work closely with various business units on the needs of data analysis
- Perform ad hoc analysis on large/diverse datasets by using various tools and techniques

Requirements

- Bachelor degree or above in Information System, Computer Science, Computer Engineering or equivalent
- 2 - 4 years relevant working experience in data warehouse development or ETL/data manipulation and data processing
- Solid experience in MSSQL, Stored Procedure, SSIS, SSA, ETL (SQL-Reporting Services//QlikView) is an advantage
- Strong data mining & visualization, database management and programming skills
- Analytical mind with good report design & development skills
- Data warehouse, data management and data security concepts
- Well organized, excellent interpersonal and communication skills
- Detail minded and able to work under pressure

Interested parties, please send your detailed resume, availability and expected salary by email to hr@unichina-market.com

{Personal data collected will be used for recruitment purpose only.}