Add a touch of Africa to your home, office or lodge
“We’re cheeky but still serious about the environment”

From her studio at the foot of Table Mountain in Cape Town, Joanna Orr of Head On Design creates wall-mounted African animal sculptures, all of which exude an Afro-chic elegance. A graceful take on traditional hunting trophies, they serve to celebrate our wildlife, but without the bloodshed. Each head is carefully designed and crafted from specially cut pieces of natural, sustainable bamboo & birch ply, or recycled paperboard.

This catalogue shows best sellers over the past few years. If you would like to see the full range, please enquire. Products also include table decor, bookshelves, chopping boards and side tables.

All sculptures come flat-packed with diagrammatic instructions.

“We create beautiful decor while still being kind to nature”

Needing to preserve our natural heritage, Head On Design has donated to various conservation organisations over the years to help save our magnificent rhinos, elephants & lions.

Head On Design also creates small to large scale installations for events and weddings.

Bespoke pieces and commissions are welcome, as well as branded corporate gifts.

All products are lovingly made in Cape Town.

Ele with Baobab Woodland

Sharon Leilani Boonzaier

A collaboration

Artist: Sharon Boonzaier

Head On Design and artist Sharon Boonzaier have joined forces to create a range of hand-painted heads made from Birch Ply, painted in ink and finished with gold leaf. Each head is inspired by themes of South Africa's natural and historical heritage. No one piece is the same and each unique head is an exquisite artwork to behold. Medium and large sizes are available. All sculptures are signed by the artist.
