CONNECTION
QUARTZ

Stone Connection's exclusive range of Connection Quartz gives you the freedom to create.

Quartz, is a cost effective and highly durable type of engineered stone suitable for all your interior and and some exterior design needs.

Stone Connection is one of the world's largest distributors of natural and engineered stone slabs with branches in South Africa, Europe, and the United States.

We offer a diverse product range by drawing on a vast network of quarries, processors, and distributors in order to source only the highest quality material catered to our clients design needs.
