INVEO INTERIORS

Inveo began as a freelance studio in 2013, and has remained true to its creative way of thinking since its inception.

A B O U T

INTERIOR ARCHITECTURE

Human interaction shapes the spaces we design and the way we operate, something which is reflected equally in our interior spaces. Our offices are open and welcoming, facilitating collaboration and interaction with each other. Our work strives to enhance our sense of surroundings, identity and relationship to others and the physical spaces we inhabit, whether natural or human-made.

Buildings, interiors, retail, graphics, landscapes and commercial get the same care and attention to purpose.

Inveo Interiors specializes in demanding unique design and installation projects. This Pretoria based firm was founded in 2013 by Melissa van Tonder and after completing various projects in residential, commercial and retail now boasts a team of creative professionals. A horizontal organizational structure and open flow of information between colleagues is core to Inveo's culture. Our office layout is non-hierarchical, allowing all employees – regardless of role or profession – to sit together in an open office.

CEO
INTERIOR ARCHITECT

By being the CEO, owner and senior designer, Melissa upholds a strong creative portfolio as interior architect and 3D-artist, in both residential and commercial design. She values relationships with clients and prioritises clients' interactions within interior spaces; therefore, upholds a great understanding of clients' needs and experiences. This enables her to design spaces that makes clients feel comfortable and encourage them to engage in the presence of inspiring interiors. With her solid record, Melissa has the ability to make use of existing spatial influences to further enhance and shape interior spaces; however, she also has the creative ability to make use of vacant spaces to design alluring and influential interior design.

Annelie is a strong believer in quality over quantity in developing projects that speak to human experiences. She is a confident and passionate interior & graphic designer that takes the initiative in developing and learning her craft. This enables her to deliver solutions that speaks to the needs of human-centred design and human experiences within interior spaces. Her positive and confident nature ensures that she is able to deliver effective solutions that speaks to the needs of the client. Through her hard work, human-centred approach, and enthusiasm she is a much-valued asset to Inveo Interiors.
