Multi purpose textured plains

This gorgeous collection of plains has something for everyone when it comes to colour and texture. The two designs, Desertia and Woolskin are unique in their own way.

DESIGN DETAILS

Desertia is a strié inspired design that has taken the normally subtle understated strié to a higher level with a more pronounced and textural stripe effect. The end result is the ultimate multi purpose fabric that will be as beautiful on the window as it will on the couch. Available in 24 colours that include a subtle yet very effective two-tone effect that creates a wonderful depth to this intriguing fabric.
