about us

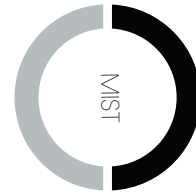

twelve is the essential kitchen brand of ORDEGROUP and was developed to service the designer private market. all cabinetry is custom manufactured to ensure simplicity in design while still adhering to the groups quality standards.

the name of the brand twelve means 'complete' which directly represents the ethos of the product offering, giving you all necessary functionality, aesthetics and quality resulting in the essential luxury kitchen.

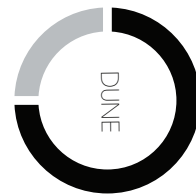

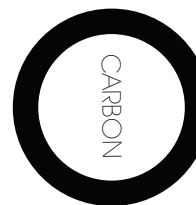

the pearl range focuses on gentle tones and soft finishings, using texture though to bring interest to the overall feel.

the mist range has been developed to offer contrasts using materials and tones that offer character within a paired-back colour palette.

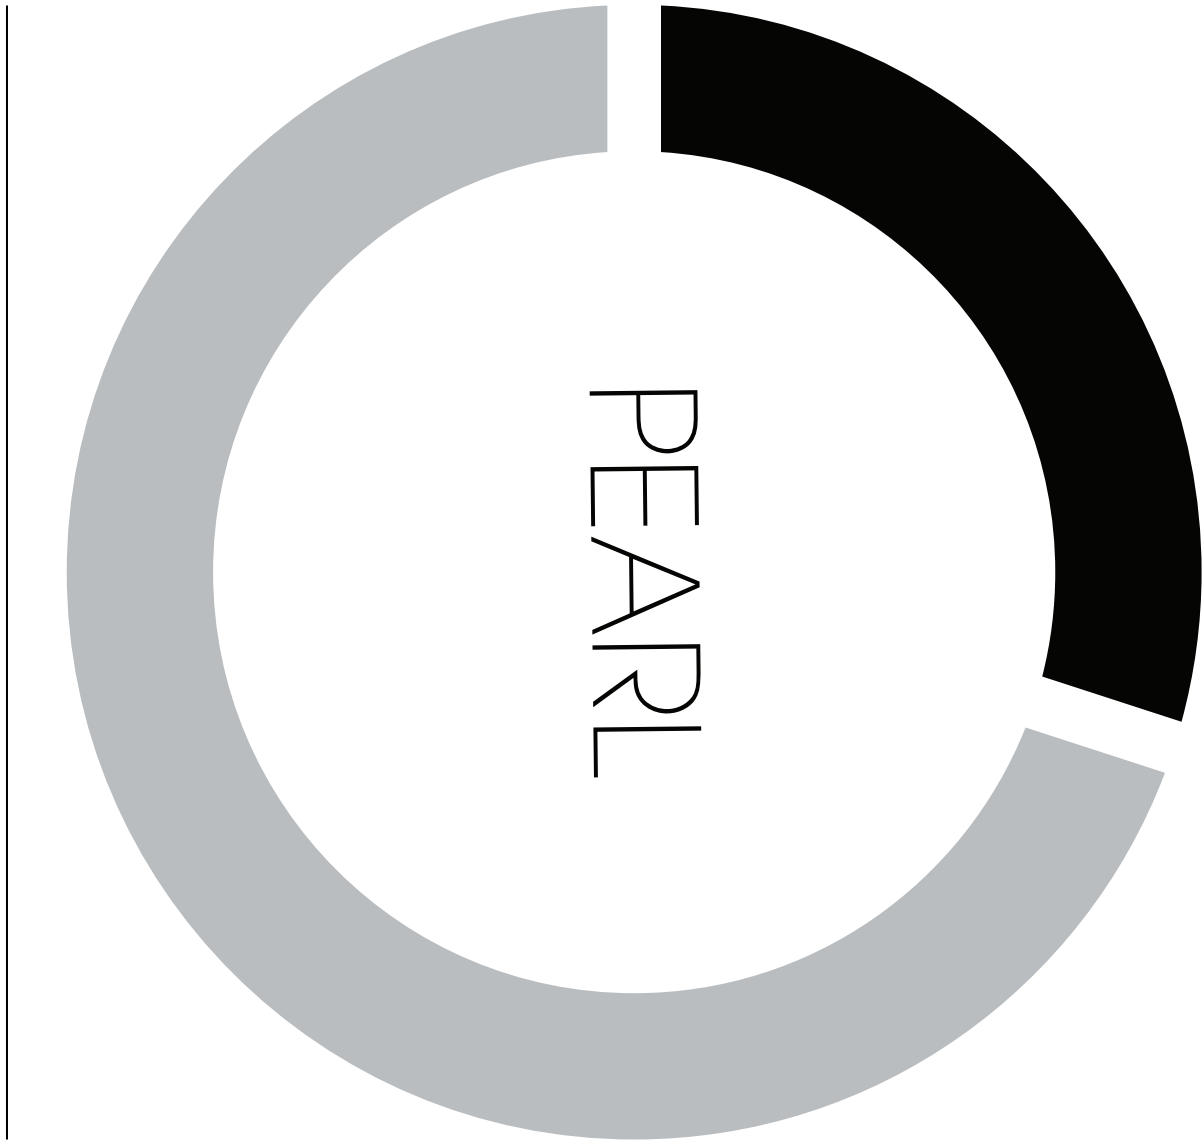

the dune range ushers in a sense of warmth focusing on tones that accentuate the styling of a modern interior.

the carbon range is a drive towards dramatic tones and rich contrasts ensuring a space that deepens the senses.
