RP165L Record Player Set Light Wood

The Fenton RP165 record player with built-in amplifier is elegantly simplistic in design. Listen to your vinyl records with optimal sound by adjusting the volume on the two included speakers. These dual stereo 50 watt speakers blast music from either a 3 speed turntable (33 1/3, 45, 78 RPM) or built-in BT technology to wirelessly stream music from any BT enabled device.
