

R3c Live: The Next Phase of COVID-19: Returning to Work Ensuring a Safe and Secure Workplace

Join us on Tuesday, June 16th at 12:00PM (CST) for our R3c Live Event
Featuring: Oscar Villanueva - Managing Director of Security Services

Returning to work in this next phase of the COVID-19 pandemic is for most of us a unique experience, and a source of anxiety and fear for the unknown. And safety and security questions are inevitable under these circumstances. Have you thought about the most likely security concerns you will encounter during reopening and how to deal with them? In this R3c Live event Oscar Villanueva, Managing Director of Security Services will cover security topics and solutions focused on the next phase of COVID-19: returning to work while ensuring a safe and secure workplace. Are your facilities secure? Are your employees encountering difficulties enforcing mask wearing rules? Are you concerned about a likely increase in workplace violence? Are you planning to downsize your company through a reduction in force (RIF) and need to ensure a safe and secure environment? Get your answers to that, and more.

Learning Objectives:

- Understanding the next phase of COVID-19 return to work security concerns
- Addressing security precautions for businesses that may have to undergo RIFs or terminations
- Learning techniques to deal with and deescalate hostility in the workplace
- Understanding security measures that should be in place to keep your organization safe and secure
- Tackling unique issues such as enforcing mask wearing guidelines and policies
