Factories Act, 1948

Q 1 Define Manufacturing Process?

Ans 1. Manufacturing Process Section 2(k) defines the expression 'manufacturing process' as any process for

- a. making, altering, repairing, ornamenting, finishing, packing, oiling, washing, cleaning breaking up, demolishing, or otherwise treating or adapting any article or substance with a view to its use, sale, transport, delivery, or disposal, or
- b. pumping oil, water, sewage, or any other substance; or
- c. generating, transforming, or transmitting power; or
- d. composing types for printing, printing by letter press, lithography, photogravure or other similar process or book binding; or
- e. constructing, reconstructing, repairing, refitting, finishing, or breaking up ships or vessels; or
- f. preserving or storing any article in cold storage

Q 2 Define Factory?

Ans 2. Section 2(m) defines the term 'factory' as any premises including the precincts thereof

- a. where ten or more workers are working, or were working on any day of the preceding twelve months, and in any part of which a manufacturing process is being on with the aid of power, or is ordinarily so carried on, or
- b. whereon twenty or more workers are working, or were working on any day of the preceding twelve months, and in any part of which a manufacturing process is being carried on without the aid of power, or is ordinarily so carried on,-

but does not include

- a mine subject to the operation of the Mines Act, 1952 or
 - a mobile unit belonging to
 - the armed forces of the Union,
 - a railway running shed or a hotel or
 - Restaurant or
 - eating place.
- c. For the purposes of this clause, the mere fact that an Electronic Data Processing Unit or a Computer Unit is installed in any premises or part thereof, shall not be construed to make it a factory if no manufacturing process is being carried on in such premises or part thereof.
- d. The State Government may make rules relating to approval, licensing and registration of factories and no factory can run without such license or approval. Power to de-license and deregister is also with the State Government.

Q 3 Define Occupier?

Ans 3. Occupier (Most Important)

Section 2(n) defines the term 'occupier' of a factory as the person who has ultimate control over the affairs of the factory.

- a. in the case of a firm or other association of individuals, any one of the individual partners or members thereof shall be deemed to be the occupier.
- b. in the case of a company, any one of the directors shall be deemed to be the occupier.
- c. in the case of a factory owned or controlled by the Central Government or any State Government, or any local authority, the person or persons appointed to manage the affairs of the factory by the Central Government, the State Government, or the local authority shall be deemed to be the occupier.
- d. in the case of a ship which is being repaired, or on which maintenance work is being carried out, in a dry dock which is available for hire,-
- e. the owner of the ship or his agent or master or other office-in-charge of the ship or any person who contracts with such owner, agent or master or other officer-in-charge to carry out the repair or maintenance work shall be deemed to be the occupier.

In 'Container Corporation of India Limited v. Lt. Governor, Delhi' – 2002 LLR 1068 it was held that in the case of a company, which owns a factory, it is only one of the directors of the company who can be notified as the occupier of the factory for the purpose of the Act and the company cannot nominate any other employee to be the occupier of the factory.

In 'Indian Oil Corporation V. Labor Commissioner' –AIR 1998 SC 2456 it was held that for the purpose of Section 2(n) what is to be seen is who has the 'ultimate control' over the affairs of the factory. Relevant provisions regarding establishment of the Indian Oil Corporation Limited and its working, leave no doubt that the ultimate control over all the affairs of the Corporation, including opening and running of the factories, is with the Central Government. Acting through the Corporation is only a method employed by the Central Government for running its petroleum industry. In the context of Section 2(n) it will have to be held that the all the activities of the Corporation are really carried on by the Central Government with a corporate mask
