SUNDAYS

Adult Bible Study

Love Living Graciously: How St. John Leads Us through Life Sacramentally

- Place: The Study
- Time: 10:00 a.m.
- Commitment: 45 minutes
- Contact: Pastor Bruzek bruzek@stjohnwheaton.org

After centuries of privilege, our story seems to be falling out of favor. All around we sense the challenges—political, (a)moral, atheist, philosophical, materialist, religious—and suddenly things feel much like they did at the start of Christianity, when disciples of Jesus were considered alien and even outlaws. Now what? Has the world really moved beyond the story of the Crucified? And if not, how do we continue to tell the only story this world's got, the only story that really matters? The Gospel of St. John remains a compelling narration of Christ's Way through this world and then Home again in joy.

Trouble Hearing the Sermon?

jralston@stjohnwheaton.org

Have you ever been confused about some things written in the Epistle of James? As we look through this letter, we will learn how James is often misunderstood. When it seems Paul and James disagree on key teachings, we will discuss how they are describing two sides of the same coin. All adults are welcome to join as we dive in!

Bernard of Clairvaux wrote of Songs, "It is everywhere love that speaks. If anyone hopes to grasp the sense of what he reads, let him love." At the very same time, if you wish to grasp the sense of your love, read the Song of Songs. Expect to be surprised—love has been co-opted by the world and its meaning taken far afield. But here we find a redemption of desire and longing, a reclaiming of the vocabulary of love.

Women don't need to be all things to all people, nor do we need to be one-dimensional creatures. We will discuss the ways that our vocations shift as we age, and our priorities and roles are constantly in flux. During our time together, we will consider how God's grace frees us to consider the ways that we can best serve the world's needs in our particular times and places, through our various vocations from friend to family, learner to teacher, leader to follower, care-giver to care-receiver.

This year's Women's Retreat features Dr. Rachel Eells, Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at Concordia University Chicago (CUC). She has served as faculty member in and chair of the psychology department at CUC after having taught in Lutheran elementary schools. She holds a PhD in Educational Psychology from Loyola University Chicago, an MEd in Gifted and Talented Education from the University of Arkansas Little Rock, and a BS in Special Education and Lutheran Teacher Education from Concordia University Nebraska. She lives in Park Ridge with her husband, Brandon, her 11 year old, Lucy, and her two sibling cats, and her current hobbies are chemistry (code for "messing around with essential oils") and construction (knitting scarves, mostly).

The Apostle Paul's writings are rich with images that help us understand the Christian life. Come and learn from Paul how to pursue life in Christ with vigor and certainty as a strong athlete would. And then, learn how to see death as a cause for rejoicing in the expectation of the prize we have sought. Paul gives us a full, surprising picture of the challenge, adventure, and joy of being a Christian.

This year's Men's Retreat features the Reverend Adam Koontz, pastor of Mount Calvary Evangelical Lutheran Church in Lititz, PA and church planter of Concordia Lutheran Mission, Myerstown, PA. A graduate of Swarthmore College and Concordia Theological Seminary, he is a doctoral candidate in New Testament and patristics at Temple University in Philadelphia. He and his wife Jennifer have five children, Christian, Lydia, Isaac, Julia, and Paul.

 Don't let the cost keep you from coming; scholarships are available. See Pastor Buchs.*

Offering Envelope Change

Starting in 2018, your offering envelopes will be mailed to your residence on a monthly basis. Research from other churches our size shows that this frequency helps members to better tend their giving, and the flexibility allows churches to keep accurate membership records as changes occur throughout the year.

All active, confirmed members of St. John will receive offering envelopes mid-month, dated for each week in the upcoming month. January envelopes will arrive mid-December. Please take a moment to provide any recent contact information changes here: www.stjohnwheaton.org/forms/update_your_info. Thank you for your cooperation with this new process!
