THE SEVEN TRUMPETS

Revelation 8-9

The Book of Revelation has three sets of heptads (three sets of seven events). These are the Seven Seals, the Seven Trumpets, and the seven Bowls. Each of these heptads represents an age in the history of humanity.

The Seven Seals have a parallel in other prophecies, especially those of Matthew 24, that concern the end of the world. They speak of wars, famine and pestilences that are to kill one fourth of the population of the world. They also speak of persecution of the righteous. All of these were foretold in Mat 24:6-9

And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places. All these are the beginning of sorrows. Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake.

We are clearly told that these things are only the beginnings of the sorrows, but that the end is not yet.

The Seven Trumpets are more ominous, and before they are unleashed on humanity, an angel is sent to seal the elect on their forehead in order to protect them from some of the plagues that will affect the unbelievers (Rev 7:3-8)

Many commentators believe that the plagues of the first four Trumpets are environmental in nature, and that those of the fifth and sixth Trumpets are Diabolical in nature.

The Sixth Trumpet is very ominous, for it ends in destruction of one third of the human race. Such an event is really a possibility, given the events that happen today in our world.

The recent testing of long range missiles by North Korea in July, 2006 and the more recent testing of a nuclear device on October 9, 2006, may set the world stage for a nuclear showdown that could actually destroy one third of mankind.

In the April 2003 issue of Parousia, I wrote the following:

So, let us engage in a bit of speculation! After “disarming” Iraq and affecting a “change of regime” (putting Iraq under the direct control of an American General ?), what will they do next? I personally feel that following success in Iraq, the next target will be North Korea. An attempt at “disarmament” and “change of regime” in North Korea, may, however be a totally different story, if China is dragged into the conflict. Instability in the area may draw India and Pakistan also into a nuclear duel and then you can have the fearsome disaster predicted in Revelation 9: 13-19.

That speculation may certainly come to pass if we seriously examine the prophesies of the Book of Revelation. It was for this reason that I gave a PowerPoint presentation to the congregation of St. Mary’s Church in Kitchener, about the Seven Trumpets, on Saturday October 7, two days before North Korea’s Nuclear test took place.

In the next few pages, I would like to share with our readers this presentation. It is entirely up to each reader to come up with his/her conclusions.

What is acid rain?

يقدر العلماء الألمان ان ثلث اشجارهم تموت بسبب الامطار الحامضية

Car exhaust fumes and smoke from factories and power stations release chemicals, including sulphur dioxide and nitrogen oxides, into the air. The chemicals react with water vapour to form specks of sulphuric and nitric acid. These acids return to the ground in raindrops, snowflakes and other types of precipitation.

The acid kills fish and other animals in lakes and rivers. It damages the soil by destroying the bacteria in it and it harms plants. Acid rain is a serious problem in North America and in central and north-western Europe. For example in the mid-1980s, West German experts estimated that one-third of their trees were dying because of acid rain. The governments of many industrial nations are now trying to find ways of reducing this form of pollution.

Many countries in Europe have seen extensive damage to forests. 35% of Europe's total forested area has been damaged. Similar effects are being seen in China, Brazil, Chile and Mexico, as well as the San Bernardino Mountains of Southern California.

Damage to the once pristine habitats of the deep oceans by pollution, litter and overfishing is running out of control, the United Nations warned yesterday. In a report that indicates that time is running out to save them, the UN said humankind's exploitation of the deep seas and oceans was "rapidly passing the point of no return".

How it Affects You

Non-point source pollution, commonly called runoff pollution, can make river and ocean water unsafe for humans and wildlife. In some areas, runoff pollution is so bad that it causes beaches to be closed after rainstorms. In 1992, for example, some beaches were closed or advisories were issued against swimming about 3,000 times.

Drinking water supplies can be contaminated by polluted runoff, as can coastal waters containing valuable fish stocks. Experts think there is a link between agricultural runoff and water-borne organisms that cause lesions and death in fish. Humans who come in contact with these polluted waters and affected fish can also experience harmful symptoms.

More than one-third of the shellfish-growing waters of the United States are adversely affected by coastal pollution.

North Sea cod at crisis point

Cod stocks around the British coast are now so low that fishing should stop until they recover, scientists say.

The number of young North Sea cod in early 2003 was the lowest for 20 years.

In many areas, the fish are even less numerous than the scientists had predicted.

They believe it will take several years before there can be any hope of a real recovery.

China's Drinking Water Situation Grim; Heavy Pollution to Blame

Yingling Liu – August 3, 2006 – 5:45am

At a July 25 national meeting on legal enforcement of the protection of drinking water sources, China's environmental authorities concluded that the country's water quality situation remains grim, according to People's Daily. Officials with the State Environmental Protection Administration (SEPA), which organized the meeting, noted that industrial pollution accidents have been the major culprit behind poor drinking water safety in recent years.

GENEVA - Contaminated water and bad sanitation were responsible for the deaths of 1,6 million children under the age of 5 last year - or 4 500 every day - the UN health agency said Tuesday.

More than 1,1 billion people live without safe drinking water, and 2,6 billion do not have basic sanitation, the World Health Organisation said in a United Nations report on water and sanitation conditions around the globe.

Clean water is "a question of life and death for millions of people around the globe", WHO Assistant Director General Susanne Weber-Mosdorf said, adding that for children a global water crisis "is already a reality".

In 1985, a geography researcher called Atsumu Ohmura at the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology got the shock of his life. As part of his studies into climate and atmospheric radiation, Ohmura was checking levels of sunlight recorded around Europe when he made an astonishing discovery. It was too dark. Compared to similar measurements recorded by his predecessors in the 1960s, Ohmura's results suggested that levels of solar radiation striking the Earth's surface had declined by more than 10% in three decades. Sunshine, it seemed, was on the way out.

In the second half of the 20th century, the world became, quite literally, a darker place.

Defying expectation and easy explanation, hundreds of instruments around the world recorded a drop in sunshine reaching the surface of Earth, as much as 10 percent from the late 1950's to the early 90's, or 2 percent to 3 percent a decade. In some regions like Asia, the United States and Europe, the drop was even steeper. In Hong Kong, sunlight decreased 37 percent.

Indeed, in the last decade alone, we have observed the fulfillment of Revelation 8:7-12, for scientists have revealed to us that mankind, as a result of pride and greed, has paved, stripped or poisoned nearly one-third of the arable land surface, has caused, by pollution, a substantial reduction in the quantity of solar energy which reaches the earth (i.e., reduced the amount of sunshine) and is well on the way to having poisoned fully one third of the seas, killing the living creatures which dwell in them.

And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit. 2 And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit. 3 And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power. 4 And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads. 5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man. 6 And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

Having spent 19 years as a physician before being ordained, I cannot get rid of the part in my gray matter that still thinks like a physician! So, when I meditate on the phrases, "spiritual torment," "foretaste of hell," and "men shall seek death and shall not find it," one word keeps flashing in my mind, DEPRESSION!

لقد قضيت تسع عشرة سنة كطبيب قبل رسامتي وليس في استطاعتي أن أتخلص من هذا الجزء من عقلي الذي ما زال يفكر كطبيب!
وعندما أتأمل في هذه التعبيرات: "عذاب روحي"، "مذاقة لعذاب الجحيم"، "سيطلب الناس الموت ولا يجدونه" فإن كلمة واحدة تنبض في داخل عقلي:
الإكتئاب! Depression

Father Athanasius Iskander: "The Abomination of Desolation"

Depression is the closest thing to being in hell. It is a state of utter hopelessness, where the present is worse than the past, and the future is even worse than the present. The torment and mental agony are so overpowering that the only deliverance often seems to be death. Father Athanasius Iskander: "The Abomination of Desolation"

إن عذاب الإكتئاب هو أقرب شيء لعذاب الجحيم. إنها حالة ينعدم فيها الرجاء تماماً حيث الحاضر يبدو أسوأ من الماضي والمستقبل أسوأ من الحاضر.

وكثيراً ما يطلب المرضى الموت بمحاولة الإنتحار ولا يجدونه بسبب تدخل الأهل والأصدقاء.

We live in a period in which depression seems rampant.

إننا نعيش الآن في عصر قد إنتشر فيه الإكتئاب إنتشاراً وبائياً.

En Route Magazine, October 1997

The main reason, however for this epidemic is that people are increasingly estranged from the Grace of God. "Medicine has become our substitute religion, If you're treating your spiritual yearnings with Prozac, you have a problem, haven't you?"

إن السبب الرئيسي لإنتشار الإكتئاب هو انفصال الناس عن نعمة الله لقد أصبحت الأدوية هي بديل للديانة إننا نعطي بروزاك كعلاج للتشوق الروحي وهذه مشكلة

Dr. Margaret sommerville, McGill Center for Medicine, Ethics and law, Montreal

We are told that those demons that sting like scorpions, only sting those who have not the seal of God, because those who have accepted the seal of God have become His own

إن هذا الإكتئاب الشيطاني سوف لا يضر أبناء الله لأن الشياطين الذين يسببونه قد قيل لهم أن لا يضرُوا الناس الذين لهم علامة الله على وجوههم

Father Athanasius Iskander: "The Abomination of Desolation"

Clinical depression affects about 16% of the population (worldwide)* on at least one occasion in their lives. In some countries, such as Australia, one in four women and one in six men will suffer from depression. Clinical depression is currently the leading cause of disability in the US as well as other countries. (Wikipedia online Encyclopedia)

* In Canada the rate is 20% and in US it is 25%

In a 1993 study, researcher Harold Koenig assessed the relationship between religious involvement and anxiety disorders in 2,969 individuals. They concluded that young and middle-aged individuals who attended church at least once a week were significantly less likely to have anxiety-related disorders than those who did not attend church regularly

A national study of 2,679 baby boom-generation participants was conducted to understand the causes of psychiatric illnesses. The study found that those who attend church regularly have only a 50% probability of suffering from mental health conditions such as depression and other mental illnesses compared to those who attended church infrequently. The Sixth Trumpet: Rev 9:13-16

البوق السادس: رؤ ٩: ١٣-١٦

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God, 14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates. 15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men. 16 And the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: and I heard the number of them.

13 ثُمَّ بَوَّقَ الْمَلَائِكَةُ السَّادِسُ،
فَسَمِعْتُ صَوْتًا وَاحِدًا مِنْ أَرْبَعَةِ
فُرُوجِ مَذْبَحِ الذَّهَبِ الَّذِي أَمَامَ اللَّهِ،
14 قَائِلًا لِلْمَلَائِكَةِ السَّادِسِ الَّذِي مَعَهُ
البُّوقُ: «فُكِّ الأَرْبَعَةَ المَلَائِكَةَ
المُقَيَّدِينَ عِنْدَ النَّهْرِ العَظِيمِ

النَّاسِ. 16 وَعدَدُ جُيُوشِ الفُرْسَانِ
مِئَتًا مِليُونًا. وَأَنَا سَمِعْتُ عدَدَهُمْ.

The four bound angels that are to be loosed at the sounding of the Sixth Trumpets, are no doubt fallen angels (demons) because good angels need not be bound. Satan himself is bound and so are his assistants. We are told by the Fathers that at the time of the end Satan will be loosed. The four angels must be "Generals" that will lead an army of demons that numbers 200 million إن الأربعة ملائكة المقيدون هم بلا شك ملائكة ساقطون لأن الملائكة الأبرار لا حاجة لهم أن يقيدوا. إن الشيطان نفسه مقيد وهكذا أيضاً أعوانه. ولكن في الزمان الأخير سوف يحل من سجنه هو وأعوانه. وهؤلاء الأربعة ملائكة هم قواد في جيش الشيطان سوف يقودون جيشاً من الشياطين تعداده مئتي مليون.

Father Athanasius Iskander: Has the Sixth angel sounded his Trumpet? Parousia April 2003

The task of these 200 million demons led by the four "Generals" is not to kill one third of humanity, rather to incite humans to kill one another. This means one thing only, a nuclear war that kills one third of the inhabitants of the world.

إن وظيفة هؤلاء المئتي مليون شيطان تحت قيادة الأربعة قواد ليست هي قتل ثلث البشرية بل تحريض البشر أن يقتل بعضهم بعضاً. وهذا يعني حدوث صراع نووي يموت فيه ثلث العالم.

China has rebuffed U.S. calls for a swift U.N. Security Council response to North Korea's nuclear weapons test threat, calling the stalled six-party talks the only workable solution.

Security Council members are struggling with the question of how to respond to North Korea's nuclear threat.

As U.S. officials in Washington were warning of activity at potential North Korean nuclear test sites, U.N. Ambassador John Bolton was pushing for swift diplomatic measures that will send a strong signal to Pyongyang.

Other Security Council members, however, prefer a more cautious approach. Japan Wednesday suggested a statement urging North Korea to return to stalled six-party talks on ending its nuclear program and warning that weapons tests would jeopardize regional peace.

China Will Not Attend New Talks On North Korea Nuclear Program

China said Tuesday it did not plan to attend a 10-nation meeting in New York on how to draw North Korea back to talks on its nuclear program, and reiterated its opposition to sanctions against Pyongyang.

"China has no plan to attend such a meeting," foreign ministry spokesman Qin Gang told a regular briefing when asked about the 10-nation conference, scheduled for Thursday in New York.

أعلنت الصين أنها لن تحضر إجتماعا دوليا لمحاولة إقناع كوريا الشمالية بالعودة إلى مائدة المفاوضات!

Beijing determined that resolving the North Korean nuclear crisis, i.e., having Pyongyang give up its nuclear program, is not in its own security interest. Keeping America tied down diplomatically and militarily in the region because of the North Korea crisis will allow China to become a more influential regional and global player.

لقد قررت الصين أن إقناع كوريا الشمالية بالتخلي عن برنامجها النووي ليس في مصلحتها القومية. إن إبقاء الولايات المتحدة مقيدة عسكريا ودبلوماسيا بسبب الأزمة الكورية سوف يعطي الصين أهمية كبيرة على المحيط العالمي.

The Coming of AntiChrist

It is very possible that he will begin his activity under the conditions of a world war, or a great international financial crisis, when man will not see any way out of his calamitous blind alley, because all the means for the resolution of it will be in the hands of Antichrist. He will offer a plan for the successful resolution of the world crisis, based on social and political wisdom - the establishing of a uniform political and social structure over the whole world. Mankind, being spiritually blind, will not recognize this project as a cunning snare luring it into the most merciless, continual slavery. To the contrary, man will hail Antichrist's manifestations of great erudition, wisdom and genius.
