We have been learning about the changing trends in tourism and the need to develop sustainable tourism. We have looked at popular tourist destinations for UK residents at National, European and global scales.

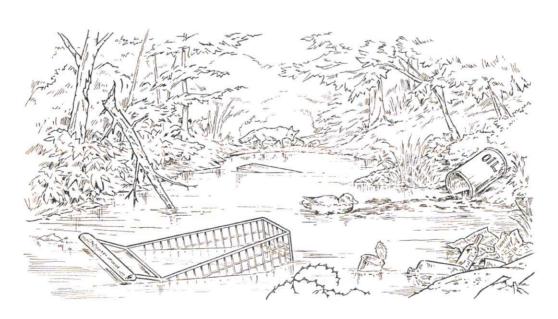

- Chose a country that you have visited or would like to possibly visit one day and create a tourism brochure using the template provided.
- If you have access to the internet and a computer you may wish to create a powerpoint presentation about a country of your choice.
- Can you recall any of the popular tourist destinations we have been learning about in class? Add them to the table below or add some of your own suggestions.

In class we have been talking about how pollution at the seaside and at the countryside can be a big problem, particularly litter! Create a poster to encourage people not to litter!

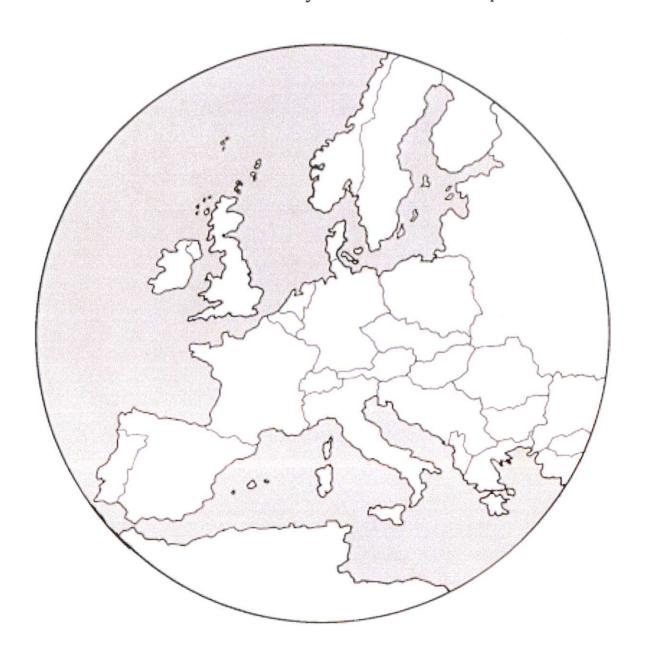

Can you find and label any of the European countries listed below on the map?!

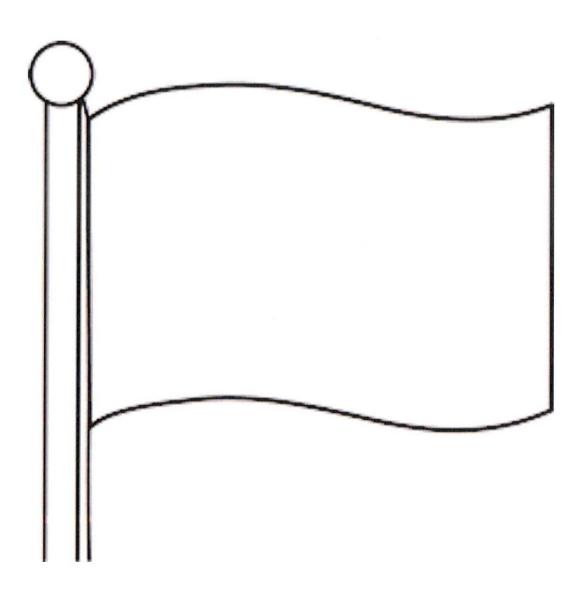

-United Kingdom	-Germany	-France
-Norway	-Denmark	-Belgium
-Sweden	-Spain	-Switzerland
-Finland	-Portugal	-Belgium
-Austria	-Italy	-Repulic of Ireland

Recreate the flag from a country of your choice or design a new flag!

Find and label some of these popular cities of the United Kingdom on the map below. Create a fact file about one of the cities listed.

-Edinburgh	-Manchester	-Birmingham
-Cardiff	-London	-Sheffield
-Belfast	-Leeds	-Dublin
-Newcastle upon Tyne	-Norwich	-Glasgow
-Liverpool	-Portsmouth	-Bristol

Sights, smells and sounds at the seaside

At the seaside you can see lots of different sights and hear lots of different sounds. You can smell lots of different smells, too.

Complete the following sentences or create a sensory poem based on what you might see, smell or hear at the seaside.

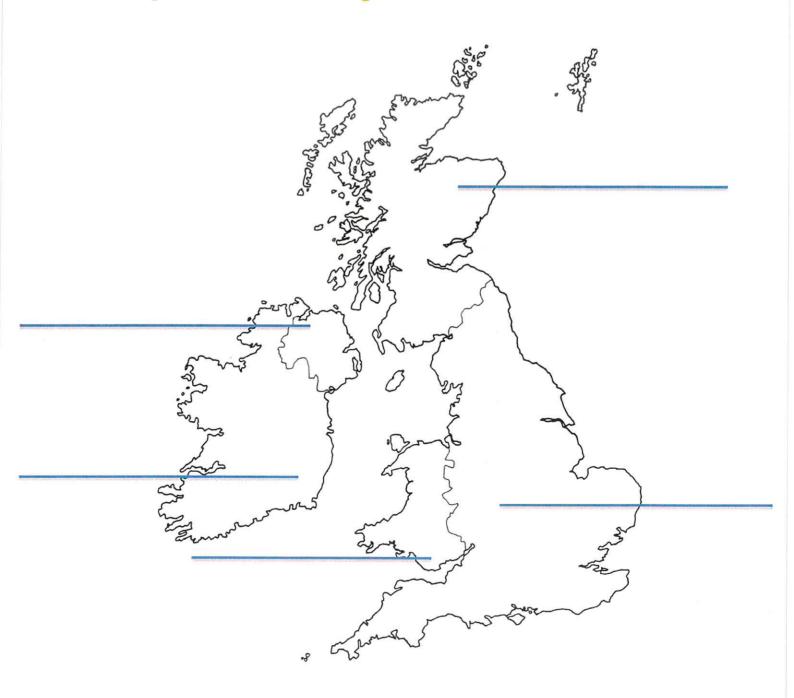

If I were at the seaside I might see
If I were at the seaside I might smell
If I were at the seaside I might hear

Basic information	is a country in	The capital city is	People in speak	The weather is
		The co	People	The w		Things to see and do

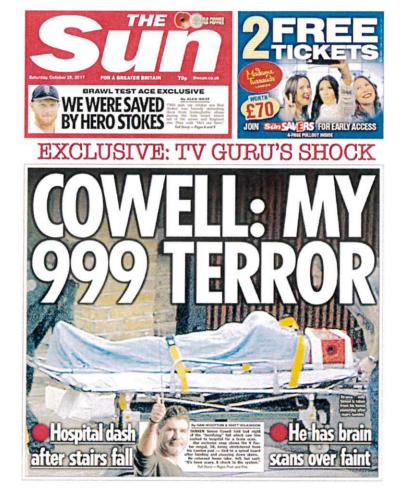

Label each country and colour the map using the following criteria!

England -Red, Scotland – Blue, Wales – Yellow, Northern Ireland – Dark Green, Republic of Ireland – Light Green

Create a front page

- 1. Look at the front page below. Label the following:
 - Masthead (name/date/price)
 - Main story
 - Headline
 - Photograph
 - Lead paragraph (first paragraph: who, what, when and
 - where)
 - Teasers (other stories or offers inside)

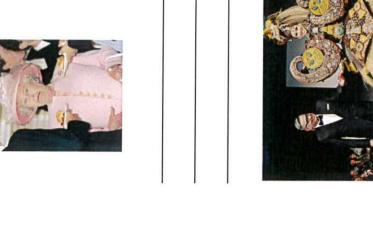

- 2. Make your own front cover. Remember you need:
- Masthead (name/date/price)
- Main story
- Headline
- Photograph
- Lead paragraph (first paragraph: who, what, when and
- where)
- Teasers (other stories or offers inside)

Headlines and captions

- Write a headline and caption for each photograph
- Extension: Write a newspaper article for some of them

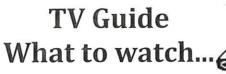

The 5 Ws

- Read a news article or watch a news report
- Fill in the boxes below

Who is the article about?
What is the article about? What happened?
Where does it take place?
When is it written? Is it about now or the past?
Why was the article written? Why is it interesting?
why was the article written. why is it interesting.

- Create a TV guide for your class newspaper.
- Extension: Choose one show and write an email/letter to a friend persuading them to watch the TV show.
