

THE MAGIC TRICK

SYNOPSIS

In the middle of the night, a young girl, isolated after a party and a fight with her mom, finds herself alone at a bus station with a dead phone battery. It's cold and there is no bus in her sight. Desperate, she accepts a ride from a creepy stranger. What starts as a seemingly normal ride takes a dark turn when the driver insists on performing a "magic trick."

The trick becomes horrifying as the driver intentionally hits and kills a pedestrian, leaving the girl in a shock.

After a failed attempt to escape, she finds herself trapped in a car. Forced by the creepy driver she must execute a magic trick on an innocent child and mother or face deadly consequences. She's torn between saving herself or the others, but she decides to perform the trick plunging into a world of darkness. But in a surprising turn, she turns the tables on him, performing the trick upon him. Returning home to her mother, she's physically free but emotionally scarred, forever changed by this experience.
