

Informal letters

Class Objective

Concept A. Points to remember while writing an informal letter

- Since the letter is informal, try to keep the language as friendly as possible. Taking the language up a formal notch, would altogether change the mood of the letter.
- Cover all the given points. Don't skip any point, as it will reduce your marks.
- Remember not to cross the word limit.
- Try to start with a good introduction. Remember you are writing an informal letter. Starting with a friendly salutation with the first name of the person is preferable, like, 'Lieber Frank/Liebe Eva'.

Concept A. Points to remember while writing an informal letter

- Start with a friendly question, like 'wie geht es dir/ ich möchte dir etwas erzählen/ es gibt etwas Neues'.
- Remember to start the letter with a small letter word.
- For every point, try to write at least 2-3 sentences.
- While concluding, writing that you are waiting for an answer, would sound good.
- End also with a friendly greeting.
- At the end, re-read your letter, and make corrections wherever necessary.
