Class Objective

To learn how to use future tense in French

Concept A: Different forms of Future Tenses in French

There are three forms of future tense in French:

1. Futur simple - Simple future - describes the actions that will occur in future
2. Futur Antérieur - Future Perfect - describes an action that will have occurred before another action in future
3. Futur Proche - Near Future - describes an action that will take place in near future - corresponds to the going to + verb construction of English.

The following table describes which French tense correspond to a specific English Future tense:

This lesson mainly concentrates on Future Simple and Near Future.

English Tense	English Example	French Tense	French Example
Simple Future	I will make a cake.	Futur simple	Je ferai un gâteau.
		Futur Proche
	I am going to make a cake.		Je vais faire un gâteau.
Future Continuous	I will be making a cake.	Futur simple	Je ferai un gâteau.
		Futur simple + En train de + verb	Je serai en train de faire un gâteau.

The following table describes which French tense correspond to a specific English Future tense:

This lesson mainly concentrates on Future Simple and Near Future.

English Tense	English Example	French Tense	French Example
