

N+처럼, N+같이

Class Objective:

I'll be able to say 'like' or 'as ... as' in Korean.

Concept A: Noun + 처럼

처럼 expresses that some action or thing appears the same or very similar to the preceding noun. It corresponds to 'like' or 'as ... as' in English.

아빠가 밥을 먹고 있어요 = Dad is eating rice/food.

By using ~처럼, we can indicate that father is eating rice "like" the way a crazy person eats.

아빠가 미친사람처럼 먹고 있어요 = Dad is eating (rice) like a crazy person.

Here are some other examples of ~처럼 being attached to nouns:

나처럼 = like me

예전처럼 = like old times

전처럼 = like before

원숭이처럼 = like a monkey

Example:

저는 그 전처럼 하고 싶어요 = I want to do it like before

그 사람은 너처럼 돈이 별로 없어 = That person, like you, doesn't have much money

바보처럼 왜 이렇게 상식이 없어요? = Why, like an idiot, do you not have any common sense?

Concept B: Noun + 같이

같이 also expresses that some action or thing appears the same or very similar to the preceding noun. It corresponds to 'like' or 'as ... as' in English.

Example:

저는 한국사람같이 한국어를 잘 할 수 있으면 좋겠어요.

I want to speak Korean fluently like a Korean person.

어린이같이 행동하지 마세요.

"Don't act like kids."

저 아이는 어른같이 말해요.
