Reflexiv pronouns Akkusativ and Dativ

Class Objective

I will be able to understand
Reflexive Pronouns in German.

Concept A: Understanding German Pronouns

- Reflexive pronouns in German grammar are mich/mir, dich/dir, uns, euch
- and *sich. We use them with reflexive and reciprocal verbs. “Reflexive”
- simply means that the pronoun refers back to the subject of the sentence.
- It must be declined to match the case they are in.

Concept A: Understanding German Pronouns

In German there are a number of verbs called reflexive verbs, where the subject and object are the same (I washed myself). These have to be used together with reflexive pronouns that we use to refer back to the subject of the sentence, as in 'myself', 'yourself', 'herself'.

Examples:

- Er hat sich rasiert.
- Ich ziehe mir eine Jacke an.
- Du hast dich gebadet.

Concept A: Understanding German Pronouns

Usage

We use reflexive pronouns with two different types of verbs in German grammar:

- Reflexive verbs use the reflexive pronouns with the meaning “oneself”. We use the reflexive pronoun in the dative if there is also an accusative object.

Example:

Ich dusche mich.

Ich putze mir die Zähne.

Concept A: Understanding German Pronouns

- Reciprocal verbs use the reflexive pronouns with the meaning “each other”. Therefore, we can only use reciprocal verbs in the plural. These verbs include among others: sich kennen, sich sehen, sich lieben, sich streiten, sich einigen.

Example:

Ich glaube, wir kennen uns. (wir kennen einander)
