Possessiv Pronomen

Class Objective

To understand what are possessive pronouns and use them in our language.

Concept A: Possessive pronouns, like English language, are used for the same purpose.

- In German language, we call them 'Possessiv Pronomen'
- Possessive pronouns indicate possession.
- There are dependent and independent possessive pronouns in German grammar, both types must agree with their noun in case, gender and
- number.

Concept B: How are possessiv Pronomen used?

- Dependent possessive pronouns come before nouns, which is why they are also called possessive articles. The chart below provides an overview of the singular and plural forms of dependent possessive pronouns in Nominativ, Akkusativ, Dative and Genitive cases.
- We have learnt about pronouns like ich, du, sie, er etc.
- The same pronouns will be converted to possessive pronouns and when used along with the cases, gender and number, we can start using the Possessiv Pronomen.
