

Review 4

Class objective: I will be able to recall all the concepts learnt previously and answer all the questions correctly.

Concept A- A basic overview of the past perfect in Arabic language so go through it carefully.

- The past perfect shows us that the action was done and in the past and nothing is left.
- In Arabic language we use " كان " as a helping verb with simple past tense to make past perfect as below:

كان + فعل

- So now we have two verbs, one is the main verb and second one is helping verb and both should be conjugated. كان is conjugated like the simple past tense and the main verb is conjugated like the simple past tense.

Kindly the conjugation of the past perfect with " to do ".
