Describe any law that is must needed in your country

Class Objective : I will be able to understand the concept of the above topic.

Concept A: Introduction

All Laws are made by the government for the smooth running of the country. Laws are mandatory to maintain peace and order, without which there will be utter chaos and anarchy. Laws are criminal, statutory, civil and common law. Some laws are good for the society such as ban of smoking in public places, not to use plastic, wearing helmets, not using mobile while driving, not cutting down trees etc.

Concept B: Features

- The parliament is in charge of making the laws.
- All persons in independent India are equal before the law.
- The law cannot discriminate between persons on the basis of their religion, caste or gender.
- NO one is above the law.
- Rule of law in INdia states that all laws apply equally to all citizens of the country and no one can be above the law.
- Citizens play an important role in that helps to resolve concerns of people. Eg- law against domestic violence in women.
- Laws help protect the general safety of people.
- It protects and ensures the rights of citizens from the other people, by organizations, and by the government itself.
- Laws exist at the local, state and national levels.
- When people respect the authority of the law, it assures mutual security for everyone.

Concept C : Expressions

- What is the law?
- How did you come to know about this law?
- Whom does it affect?
- Why do you think this law is good?
- Do you think this law will be acceptable to the people?
- Will there be a situation wherein people may disobey the law?
