Verbs with sein

Class Objective

To understand what is perfect and how sein is used

Concept A: What is perfekt?

- Perfekt is the most commonly used tense especially for spoken language.
- Perfekt is ideally used to depict some events that happened in the past (in the recent past).
- Like in English we use: I had eaten lunch - past perfect
- I have eaten lunch - Present perfect

Concept A: What is perfekt?

Note:

We use perfekt in German for speaking. For writing, we will use Past tense.

In German also we have normal perfect tense called as 'Perfekt' and also the past perfect tense is called as 'Plusquam Perfekt'. In this LP, we will be dealing with only Perfekt.

Concept B: Where is perfekt used:

"Perfekt" is the most used verb tense for referring to past actions in German. It is used for 3 situations:

1. To refer to a past action without any relation to the present

Er hat gestern Fußball gespielt

He played soccer yesterday

Concept B: Where perfekt is used:

- 2. To refer to a past action that continues in the present

Wir sind nach Spanien gereist

We travelled to Spain (and we still are there)

- 3. To refer to an action that will be completed in the future

Ich habe es nächste Woche geschafft

I'll have it done next week
