High-quality practice with the world's best

EUROSPINS is ETTU's development programme for Europe's most talented young players, giving them the chance to train at the highest level alongside leading Asian partners.

Now in its second edition, the programme builds on a highly positive first cooperation with the Korea Table Tennis Association and with two more asian associations, Japan and China Taipei, joining.

Who covers what

ETTU covers

All camp costs are covered by ETTU, except the athletes' flights and travel.

Associations cover

National Associations cover their athletes' travel and may add coaches at their own cost.

Equipment partner

Joola, official partner of the programme, provides clothing and equipment for athletes and coaches.

Live promotion

A mid-camp friendly match, Europe × Asia, is broadcast via YouTube live streaming.

A successful first edition with KTTA

The first edition brought Europe's and Asia's young talents together across two camps — a positive cooperation that ETTU and the Korea Table Tennis Association are proud to repeat.
