

Google LLC Emergency Disclosure Request

This form is to assist Google in determining whether there is sufficient justification to establish a good faith belief that disclosing data without delay is necessary to avert a threat of death or serious physical injury to a person, as set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 2702(b)(8) & (c)(4). This form must be completed by a sworn law enforcement official.

Please be sure to: (a) specify the user by the appropriate product identifier (e.g., Gmail address, YouTube URL or Google Voice number), (b) answer all questions, (c) sign as indicated below (initial any additional pages submitted), and (d) return the completed signed form and supporting materials either by email from an official email address of your agency to emergencyrecords@google.com, or via Google's Law Enforcement Request System (LERS) if you are a LERS account holder. Unsigned forms may not be processed.

1. Provide a detailed explanation of the emergency, including how the threat involves the risk of death or serious physical injury to a person and why the normal disclosure process is insufficient to address the emergency:

2. How imminent is the threat (select only one option)?

- ☐ The threat has already occurred and the investigation is ongoing but not exigent.
- ☐ The threat has already occurred, but the investigation is ongoing and exigent.
- ☐ The threat may occur within hours.
- ☐ The threat may occur within days.
- ☐ We do not know exactly when this threat may occur but believe it to be imminent.

3. What type of data do you need to help prevent the emergency (check one or more boxes)?

- ☐ Information to help identify an unknown individual (e.g., name, phone number)
- ☐ Information to help locate a known individual (e.g., recent IP activity, location coordinates)
- ☐ Other (please explain):

4. What is the Google identifier (e.g., Gmail address, YouTube URL, Voice number) that you are investigating? Note: YouTube account queries are case-sensitive.

5. How is the Google identifier listed above connected to the emergency (select only one option)?

- ☐ The subject under investigation made the statement using a Google product (e.g., the subject sent a threatening Gmail message, made a threat on YouTube, etc.)
  - i. If the subject sent a Gmail email message, please provide the email text and expanded headers. You may find the following Gmail Help page useful in obtaining and reading email headers: <https://support.google.com/mail/answer/29436>
  - ii. If the subject made the statement on another Google product please provide the URL of the blog post, YouTube video URL, etc, or a screenshot of the threat if the URL is no longer accessible.
- ☐ A statement related to the emergency originated from another company (e.g. Twitter, Facebook, askFM etc.), but there is a link to a Google user (e.g., the subject made a threat on Twitter, and provided a Gmail address when creating a Twitter account).
  - i. Please list any other user information from the company's records (for example, name, phone number, IP address) AND provide us with a copy of the production from the other company. Because many companies allow users to provide unverified email addresses during account creation, this additional information will help us determine whether the information from Google is related to your emergency.
- ☐ You believe that a person related to the emergency is using a Google product. Please explain this person's connection to the emergency and how you obtained the identifier:

- ☐ Other (please explain):

6. If the threat in question is made in a language other than English, please provide a soft copy of the text of the original threat, as well as a translation. This will help us process your request.
