

Transitions-Mental Health Association
Inspiring hope, growth, recovery and wellness in our communities

Rancho Hermosa

In Santa Maria, this 47-unit, multi-family housing project offers affordable housing and mental health, substance abuse rehabilitation and other supportive services for families and individuals. TMHA's Recovery Learning Community is located there as well. Rancho Hermosa residents are recipients of Good Samaritan Shelter services.

