After a few years of home brewing in our garage, my brother and I decided we should open a brewery so that we could share our beer. In 2009 we started with a one barrel system and worked on a single recipe, over and over, until Peeper was born. And now we have enough to share. Cheers!

Thank you for drinking our beer.
You enable us to continue to do what's right:
take care of our Earth and the creatures that live on it, take care of our staff, and to keep making better beer.
