BLACKBÉRET

PAYS D'OC INDICATION GEOGRAPHIQUE PROTEGEE

GRENACHE 80% SYRAH 20%

The symbol of French tradition. Worn by hunters and soldiers, artisans and aristocrats, artists and vineyard growers. The Black Béret evokes a seductive lifestyle found only in France. Sunshine, the Mediterranean coast, pavement cafés, and great wines.

Black Béret is a blend of 80% Grenache and 20% Syrah. The grapes for this selection come from the high hills of the Roman wine producing area of Languedoc. We have selected the oldest Grenache vines grown on stony low yielding soils on the high hills of the Languedoc to produce a wine of character (red fruit and spice), combined with the dark berry personality of the Syrah (shiraz) grape, of which the "cream" has been oak aged for 6 months.

Produced by winemaker Hugh Ryman and wine merchant Jean-Christophe Calvet. Enjoy Black Béret in a relaxed mood and paired with any Mediterranean styled food.
