INÚ

CHILE

SAUVIGNON BLANC

Chilean Wines Company has always searched for excellence in its wines and has therefore developed its vineyards in areas which provide excellent conditions for grape production. Inú wines came from vineyards along the banks of the Maule River in Chile, between the Andes Mountains and the Pacific Ocean. This region has a privileged Mediterranean type climate with cold nights and warm days, providing the necessary combination to obtain healthy, top quality grapes. Excellence, terroir, passion and talent are the words that can best define the unique nature of our wines.
