5 SENTIDOS 100% DESTILADO DE AGAVE

This 304-liter batch of agave Espadín Capón is the result of maestro mezcalero Alberto Martínez and his son-in-law Reynaldo harvesting 25 "capón" Espadín. When the agaves sprouted their "quiotes" (stalks), Alberto and Reynaldo castrated the stalks and allowed them to sit in the field for almost one year in order to allow the sugars to re-concentrate in the hearts. After harvesting, Alberto and Reynaldo roasted the piñas in an underground conical oven with encino oak and acacia leaves for six days. After roasting, they hand-mashed the cooked agave with wooden mallets, mixed it with spring water and fermented the agave in underground stone tanks with "tepehuaje" tree bark for six days. The resulting "tepache" and mash were then double-distilled in small clay pots at Alberto's palenque, "La Escondida," March 2019.

Cinco Sentidos ("Five Senses") originated as the house agave spirit in Oaxaca's acclaimed restaurant, "El Destilado." Our goal is to bring you uncertified nano-batch agave spirits that highlight varied production processes, agave diversity, and most importantly, the tradition and talents of the "familias mezcaleras" who handcraft their spirit with rigor and esteem. Drink With Respect.
