Biodynamic® 101:

✦ Elementals ✦

Rudolf Steiner, founder of Biodynamic agriculture, believed that we can never find harmony on the earth until we understand the relationship between the spiritual & the physical worlds. He classified the unseen spiritual presences in the farm, vineyard & wilderness as Elemental Beings who occupy the etheric world of the plant kingdom & who nurture roots & shoots with enlivening forces.

Tempranillo is a Spanish varietal that is named for the diminutive of temprano, or early, in reference to its early ripening. Our Tempranillo opens with aromas of violets and cassia. The smooth, elegant palate delivers flavors of elderberry, allspice, and a hint of sandalwood. It pairs well with tortilla española or a grilled rack of lamb.

Our vineyards are located at the headwaters of the Russian River in beautiful Mendocino County. Our Biodynamic wines are crafted in harmony with the rhythms of nature and fermented on native yeasts without chemical pesticides or preservatives. As three generations of organic farmers and winemakers, we find that our care and respect for the earth is reflected in the expression of purity and true terroir in our wines.
