The Symington family are proud owners of some of the finest vineyard estates in Northern Portugal, including several properties on the banks of the majestic Douro river itself. Grapes from these estates carrying the highest Douro classification. Letter 'A', are received, hand selected and vinified at the main Symington winery at Quinta do Sol on the Douro, with Altano Reserva being drawn from the primary selection.

The varietals in this blend are 75% Touriga Franca and 25% Touriga Nacional. This wine was bottled in September 2006 after a period of ten months ageing in 400 litre casks of both French and American oak.
