ALDER RIDGE

CABERNET SAUVIGNON
HORSE HEAVEN HILLS

Set upon the sun-drenched benches of the Horse Heaven Hills and overlooking the mighty Columbia River, the fruit from Alder Ridge Vineyard is iconic. Set apart by the diversity of its microclimates and in the sandy, well-drained soils left by the ancient Missoula Floods, Alder Ridge grows some of world's most coveted varietals, like Cabernet Sauvignon. Emboldened by the wind sweeping up from the gorge, the fruit is provided with both structure, a result of the thickening of its skins, and balance between sugar and acidity, as it regulates against temperature extremes. The resulting wines prove Alder Ridge Vineyard is more than a place, it is a living testament to a moment in time – enjoyed now and in years to come.
