NOMADE

MENDOZA - ARGENTINA

MALBEC

Nómade wines are crafted from grapes carefully selected by Tomás Achaval, who scours the area surrounding the Andes searching for premium vineyards which benefit from a unique location, significant vine age and experience working culture.

This wine was born in a 75-year-old vineyard in Uco Valley; the cradle of Argentina's Malbec at 3,400 feet / 1,030 meters a.s.l. Deep ruby red with bluish tinges in color with an abundance of succulent red fruit, prunes and plums on the palate, this is a beautifully crafted and truly elegant Malbec.

Aged for eight months in French and American oak barrels.

 Service temperature: 16°C/60°F
