2016 CHARDONNAY

California viticultural history is closely tied to the abbeys that were built along the rugged coastline. In 1769, vines were first planted in southern California by monks that traveled on foot from abbey to abbey. As they passed through places like Tanner's Passage, they brought with them vine cuttings that were then planted on the North Coast.

This Chardonnay is truly reflective of its origin, showing bright notes of Meyer lemon, Golden Delicious apple, and peach layered over nutmeg and vanilla. It is best matched with scallops, spring vegetables, or chicken thighs.

VINTED AND BOTTLED BY ABBEEVILLE, SANTA ROSA, CALIFORNIA
