Alexander Murray & Co

DISTILLED AT SPEYSIDE

SINGLE MALT SCOTCH WHISKY

Matured in a hogshead cask, this 2003 distillation is a single cask Alexander Murray expression of Speyside Distillery. Essentially a repurposed barrel - five American Standard Barrels are broken down to remake four hogsheads by exchanging casks heads - the hogshead is typically 59-66 US gallons. By far the most common utilized cask size in Scotch whisky maturation, the hogshead promotes retention of distillery character through slow, gentle maturation.
