Since the early days of the gold seeking pioneers, many a covetous glance has been cast on California's riches. Wooing all those that encountered the majestic mountains, rugged coastline and sprawling lush valleys, it was only a matter of time before eager explorers would stake their claim on California's bounty and on September 9, 1850, it was established as the first state.

Graced by a diverse geography and temperate Mediterranean climate, California provides the landscape for verdant vineyards to flourish, delivering wines of the finest quality. True to tradition, and with the same dedication as our first settlers, we present wines that will stake their claim on your taste buds.

This Pinot Noir is bursting with bright red berry and succulent cherry fruit flavors. Velvety and smooth, this luxurious wine presents luscious fruit which is supported by a soft and rich mid-palate accentuated by the warmth of subtle spice. Enjoy alongside an espresso spice rubbed pork loin with sweet, roasted yams.
