L'HISTOIRE

Le Château Les Grands Chênes est implanté à Saint-Christoly en Médoc. Le vignoble créé autour de la forteresse, édifée du temps des romains puis finalement détruite sous Louis XIII. Enrichi par les moines, dont l'actuelle sélection tire sa tradition, le vignoble s'est développé grâce à son port de commerce, Saint-Christoly étant devenu une grande voie d'accès au monde. Cru Bourgeois composé de Merlot, Cabernet Franc et Cabernet Sauvignon, il est élevé 18 mois en barriques de chêne français. Il est présent sur les plus grandes tables du monde.

Stretching over the oldest passage points of the Médoc, Saint-Christoly en Médoc, the vineyards was created around a roman fortress later destroyed under Louis the XIII. Saint-Christoly became one of the principal ports of commerce. This Cru Bourgeois is made from hand selected Merlot, Cabernet Franc and Cabernet Sauvignon grapes. Aged 18 months in french oak barrels. Served at the world's best tables.

Contient des sulfites/Contains sulphites/Enthält Sulfite.
