5 SENTIDOS
100% DESTILADO DE AGAVE

This 310-liter batch of Pechuga de Mole Poblano was distilled from was distilled from mature Agave Espadilla (A. Angustifolia & A. Rhodacantha), cooked chicken and Mole Poblano. Master Distiller Marcelo Luna and his son Leo harvested the agave at approximately 4,500 feet above sea level in Zoyatla, Puebla. The agaves were cooked in an underground conical oven for four days and milled with a tractor-mounted wood-chipper. Upon being mashed, the fibers were added to rawhide fermenters and allowed ferment with spring water. The resulting "melaza" and fibers were then run through a Filipino hybrid still once. On the second distillation, the "ordinario" was mixed with cooked chicken and Mole Poblano and passed through the still a second time at "Fabrica El Mirador," a community palenque in Zoyatla, Puebla. Distilled January 2020. Rested in stainless steel prior to bottling in April 2020.

Cinco Sentidos ("Five Senses") originated as the house agave spirit in Oaxaca's acclaimed restaurant, "El Destilado." Our goal is to bring you uncertified nano-batch agave spirits that highlight varied production processes, agave diversity, and most importantly, the tradition and talents of the "familias magueyeras" who handcraft their spirit with rigor and esteem. Drink With Respect.
