SOLARO ESTATE THE ART OF SCIENCE

2009 RESERVE SYRAH - TEXAS HILL COUNTRY

This single vintage Syrah was born on the banks of the Frio River at Frio Canyon Vineyard. The Vineyard owners entrusted Solaro Estate with the responsibility to transform their carefully tended grapes into this 100% native Texas Syrah of character and balance. It is a beautiful red ruby color. The nose is clear with aromas of raspberry and plum. The mouth exhibits well rounded tannins.

Solaro Estate excels through the clear understanding that the creation of the finest wines is a true marriage of science and art. Generations of wine making experience in the Italian tradition and pride in the production of fine wines from vine to glass continues today at Solaro.
