Turkey Crossing

Mendocino's vineyards lie at the cool northern extreme of California's coastal wine region. Nestled between Mendocino's rugged mountains and forests, these vineyards produce remarkable Pinot Noir grapes.

At the headwaters of the great Russian River and north of Napa Valley, Mendocino County is considered by many the last wine frontier. An area known for its simple way of life and breath-taking natural beauty, the grapes grown here seem to take on a bit of the free-spiritedness of the locals themselves.
