ANNA MARIA ABBONA

Dolcetto has been the traditional grape variety in our area (around the village of Dogliani, in Piedmont) for many centuries. Here Dolcetto expresses a distinct character of cherry and plum in aroma and flavor. Our vineyard are in the highest part of the appellation, on a very steep, perfectly exposed hillside. The oldest vines were planted in 1936 by uncle Angelo. Our most important work is in the vineyard, where care and restricted yields give the deepest, most expressive flavours. We produce two single-vineyard wines, 'Sorì dij But' and (from our oldest vines) 'Maioli'.

"This wine is made from 100% dolcetto"
