tasting notes:

A honeysuckle nose delights with refreshing tropical fruit flavors, nuanced by starfruit and lychee.
Gather around the picnic blanket or fire pit and enjoy this cheerful, versatile blend.

a day in the life of a young organic farmer
wake up at first light milk the cows
pick blackberries for breakfast wrangle the goat that got loose in the vineyard crush grapes and bottle wine build compost to put carbon back in the soil where it belongs till the soil for the pollinator hedgerow bake bread from our heirloom grain cover crops call the friends for a swim in the pond watch the sun set behind the Redwoods

know that we are part of a growing tribe of young organic farmers in America reviving soils & communities oh yeah, and at the end of the day, we like a good-sized glass of Organic Agriculturist

Blanc
