Cinco Sentidos

100% Destilado de Agave

This 180-liter batch (bottles) was distilled by maestro mezcalero Atelo Ramirez in the town of Reyes Metzontla, Puebla. Atelo wild-harvested approximately 100 agave Pichomel (A. Potatorum) and 13 agave Azul (A. Tequilana Weber) from the Zapotitlan region in southern Puebla, which is situated approximately 6,000 feet above sea level. Atelo and his wife Laura roasted the agave in an underground conical pit oven for six days. After cooking, Atelo hand-mashed the agave with a wooden mallet and allowed them to ferment naturally with spring water for 18 days. The fermented mash and tepache were then distilled twice in a hybrid still made of galvanized steel, clay, and copper. September 2019.

"La Coleccion Mixteca" is a curated selection of small-batch agave spirits crafted in the rustic distilleries of the mountainous Mixteca region of Oaxaca and Puebla. Each bottling explores the maestro mezcalero's interpretation of subjecting agave endemic to the region to peculiar production methods and styles that have largely fallen out of favor in modern times. A significant portion of sales from this collection will be used for palenque improvement projects. Series 2019.
