ROSÉ WINE

LOT 124

Coteaux d'Aix-en-Provence,
Appellation d'Origine Protégée 2014

+ Story: When it comes to Provencal roses, Aix' marks the spot. Birthplace of Cezanne, the roses of this region can instantly take you away to those impressionist landscapes of the south of France. The sun-drenched, windswept vineyards surrounding Aix-en-Provence have been cultivated since the Romans.

+ Taste: A delicate pale pink hue belies the generous aromas of red currants and fresh raspberries strewn together with subtle floral notes. A round and fruity palate is balanced with crisp citrus notes and an almost elegant acidity. This is a wine meant to pair with all of life's little pleasures.
