OLD VINE ZINFANDEL

THE STRUGGLE FOR SURVIVAL of old vine Zinfandel is an integral part of California's prestigious wine history, culture and early beginnings. As these vines age their root structures reach deep into the earth and the vine becomes more fragile. The resulting yields are significantly reduced while the flavors are concentrated, yielding superb quality.

For the most part these vines were planted for friends and family of the grower on small patches of land for their own use. These plantings are usually planted on close spacing, requiring hand nurturing and care. As the yields are reduced by age and the root system continues to expand, the resulting fruit takes on more of the individual characteristics of terroir giving each patch its own taste profile and signature. Perseverance is dedicated to preserving these unique "signatures," supporting their growers and the legacy of the remarkable wines these old vines produce.
