CHUCK TRUNKS
LOS ANGELES
"You Got a Problem?"

Chuck Trunks is an L.A. based pop artist who sees the world in black and white yet insists on adding color. He describes his art as the "aftermath of a struggle between logic and imagination." During the '80s, he challenged both sides of his brain by studying fine art at the Barnes Foundation in Philadelphia and earning a B.S. in biochemistry at North Carolina State University. In the '90s, Chuck combined his creative instincts and love of detail to produce analytical business models for drug company executives. Today, Chuck's eye catching precision abstracts are featured in numerous publications, galleries and private collections and can be spotted on album covers and device skins all over the world.
