2012 PINOT NOIR

In 1838, William Ryrie is credited with planting the first vines in Victoria at Yering Station and, in 1850, Paul de Castella was responsible for its development into one of Victoria's most important vineyards and winery. To support the growth and expansion of this pioneering vineyard, a small village was established nearby populated by workers tending these important vines. This wine celebrates their pioneering role in establishing Victoria's first vineyard.

SELECTED PARCELS OF YARRA VALLEY PINOT NOIR WERE FERMENTED IN NEW AND SEASONED FRENCH OAK BARRIQUES. WITH DELICATE, UPLIFTED AROMAS OF VIOLETS AND RED FRUITS AND A GENEROUS, SILKY PALATE, THIS WINE WILL REWARD MEDIUM TERM CELLARING.
